of the Royal Irish Academy of Music

Founded in 1848, the Royal Irish Academy of Music represents the first systematic approach to music education in the country.

Our 1,200 current students include performers who represent us with distinction on the platform, as well as music enthusiasts, the audiences of tomorrow.

A distinguished roster of over 80 of Ireland's leading musicians make-up our committed and enthusiastic teaching staff.

Up to 75 events presented annually includes concerts in our Westland Row premises, flagship performances in Ireland's national venues, international tours and community outreach projects.

With over 42,000 students examined each year by the RIAM across the island of Ireland, the Academy's Local Centre Examination System is the quality mark in music for the nation.

Over 6,500 music teachers connect with the Academy in over 1,700 centres around Ireland, creating a teaching network that is supported by the Academy with extensive continuous development programmes.

Together, we will...

- Expand the RIAM Scholarship Fund
Your support will help us ensure that finance will not be a bar for any student who wishes to study at the Academy.
- Develop the RIAM COMETS (Community Outreach Music Education and Training Scheme)
New community projects in education and health settings will foster public spirit and commitment in our students.
- Develop a high quality Instrument Bank
We would like to support our students beyond the initial challenge of finding tuition fees by offering them the additional benefit of a lengthy instrument loan.
- Spread an Irish brand of musical excellence
Your support will help us in our commitment to promote our staff, alumni and students in concert and in competition internationally. Your support will also help fund visits to Ireland by renowned performing artists and teachers, helping us to consolidate our growing international profile.
