Supporting Documents Checklist:

1. Undergraduate applicant's School Leaving Examination Certificate or High School Transcripts. Include forecast results if final results are not available (PDF format). Please note if documents are not in English, the documents should be translated and notarized.
2. Postgraduate applicant's degrees Transcripts and degree award. Include forecast results if final results are not available (PDF format). Please note if documents are not in English, the documents should be translated and notarized.
3. NON-EU applicants, passport details under a passport number and expiry date
4. For applicants whose first language is not English, RIAM will accept the following English language qualifications for admissions:
   - Cambridge English Qualifications - • Duolingo English Test
   - International English Language Testing System (IELTS Academic)
   - Pearson English International Certification
   - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)
   - Trinity College London
5. SAT or ACT results (If available, US undergraduate applicants only) (PDF format)
6. A Recommendation and Academic Reference (two letters)
   1. The recommendation letter can be from someone who can attest to your musicality, accomplishments and potential.
   2. The academic reference can be from a secondary school/high school teacher or lecturer/professor (including a principal study teacher)
7. Repertoire list detailing what pieces you have studied and performed to give the audition committee a sense of your musical background and depth. Your repertoire list may be longer or shorter, depending on years of study.
8. Postgraduate applicant's CV providing an overview of career to date (1- 2 pages PDF format)
9. For Postgraduate applicants, a 500-word maximum word statement detailing why you wish to study at RIAM
10. Students applying for the Doctor in Music Performance (DMus) should also provide examples of written work, including essays or articles.
11. For Doctorate applicants, we require a minimum of a one-page proposal from all doctorate applicants on your chosen dissertation topic. Please include information on existing secondary sources in your area of research. 12. Application Fee: Euro 100 (Payable online by Credit or Debit Card)

What formats can I upload?

You can upload a wide range of materials, including images, text and documents (a file cannot exceed 15MB).

The file types that can be accepted are listed below:
   - RIAM recommends to upload files as Adobe Reader files – (.pdf)
   - Image files – (.jpg/.gif/.tiff/.png)
   - Text files – (.rtf/.doc/.docx/.txt)